Since we were last in touch with you, we have concluded consideration of your application for the special program discussed with you and for other current openings which might be of interest to you. We must now advise you that there appears to be no immediate opportunity for us to take advantage of your interest in service with this organization.

We shall, of course, retain your file in an active status and advise you should a suitable vecancy occur. We do not have anything definite in mind for you, however, and would want you to feel free to consider other career avenues available to you without any sense of a prior obligation to us.

We appreciate your interest and patience and regret that the immediate outcome of your application was not more ensouraging.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

B. D. Mehols Director of Personnel
